IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO.7817 of 2004

Radhakanta G. Sarangi.....Petitioner

Versus

Manjra Charitable Trust & Ors....Respondents

Mr. D.V.Lonkar with Mr.S.D. Thokade, for the Petitioner
Mr.Mr. A.L. Gore, Advocate for the Respondent No.2.

CORAM: F.I. REBELLO & S.P.KUKDAY, JJ.
DATE : 29th April,2005

. On April 15, 2005 the Respondent Nos. 1 to 3 was asked to inform as to whether any candidates have been selected to the post for which the petitioner was terminated.

. Dr. R.V. Kulkarni has filed an affidavit. In paragraph 11 it is set out that one Shri Prashant M. Aphale has been appointed on regular basis on probation to the post which was earlier held by the Respondent. The learned Counsel appearing for the respondents also points out that two other regular candidates have been selected against regular vacancies. It is, therefore, not possible to issue any direction.

3. However, in the event there is any vacancy and if the petitioner is otherwise fit the respondents to consider the case of appointing the petitioner on temporary basis till such time the post is advertised and filled on regular basis. With the above observation petition stands disposed of.

(F.I.REBELLO, J.)

(S.P. KUKDAY, J.)